Who's Who

Kathryn Kellog Frank (Producer). Kathryn recently appeared as Mrs. Gibbs in Grove Players' fall production of Our Town and is now making her debut as Producer for The Good Doctor. She would especially like to thank everyone who "pitched in" to help make everything possible.

Rob Pold (Director). Rob has been active with Grove Players since 1985 when he made his stage debut as the teen-aged Thayer in Close Ties. He met his wife, Linda Metz, when the two were cast in GP's Veronica's Room in 1989. More recent roles with Grove Players include Sir Evelyn in Anything Goes and George in Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? Rob has been directing plays for Vortex in LaGrange Park for several years and is thrilled to be directing his first show for Grove Players.

Daniel Carlquist (Assistant Director). Dan has been involved with Grove Players on and offstage for 11 years. Dan has been seen on stage in Jesus Christ Superstar, Godspell, One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest, The Curious Savage, A View From the Bridge and On Blue Mountain. Dan would like to thank his wonderful wife, Theresa and his two children, Paul and Irene, for their endless patience through the rehearsals for this show.

Christine Peterson (Assistant Director, Lighting Design). Christine has appeared in several shows for Grove Players including Cabaret and Anything Goes. Chris has designed and operated lights for groups throughout the suburbs as well as for professional groups in Chicago. She would like to thank Mark for all of his support.

Dorothy Attermeyer (Ensemble). Dorothy is enjoying her first appearance for Grove Players. Her most recent experience includes roles in You Can't Take It With You, Babes in Toyland, and The Corn Is Green for The Theatre of Western Springs, Village of Roses for Vortex, and Ravenscroft for the Pendulum Theater. Ms Attermeyer is a resident of nearby Hinsdale.

David J. Callaghan (Ensemble). Among Dave's many stage credits are roles in Grove Players' productions of Social Security, Anything Goes, Robin Hood and Jesus Christ Superstar. He was also seen in Chicago for St. Gabriel Theater Guild, The Musical Comedy Murders of 1940 for Tempo Players, Love Rides the Rails for The Summer Place, and A Way With Words for Village Theater Guild.

Zachary Carr (Ensemble). Zachary is a former member of the Second City Training Center for Improvisation. His experience at Second City has led him to pursue work as a stand-up comedian. This is Zack's first play with Grove Players, although he plans to audition for many more. Zack would like to thank Nicole for all her love and support. He would also like to thank all his friends who believed in him and offered their support.

Tom Frohnapfel (Ensemble). Tom is making his first appearance on the Grove Players' stage with this production. He recently has appeared in Vortex productions of The Vampyre and The Odd Couple as well as with Sandcastle Productions in A Christmas Carol. Tom would like to thank Drew for his inspiration and Gary and Linda for their support and encouragement.

Kärin Forsburg (Ensemble). Kärin is most enthused to be doing her first show with Grove Players, after appearing recently as the hissing vampiress Melissa in The Vampyre and as Lucy Ruthven in Christmas With Strangers, both with Vortex. Other area theater credits include roles with The Theatre of Western Springs and The Summer Place in Naperville. She is employed at FTD headquarters in Downers Grove and also with The Mystery Shop. Kärin would like to dedicate her performance in The Good Doctor to all her friends and family for all their love and support.

Bill Hammack (The Writer). This is Bill's first appearance with Grove Players. Bill is an active member of The Theater of Western Springs, where he has recently appeared in I Hate Hamlet and Twelfth Night. He lives in Lisle with his wife and two children and is active with the First Congregational Church of Downers Grove.
